

Product Analyst

GMC Software Technology s.r.o.

The leading printing and communication solutions provider is hiring for its development center, based in Hradec Králové, a new employee.

Key Responsibilities:

- responsibility for several GMC products worldwide
- identifying market opportunities and defining product vision and strategy
- gathering market, technical, customer requirements
- working closely with a Marketing Product Manager and a Development Team in the development of a product plan
- compiling specific product requirements
- coordinating project schedules and timelines
- ensuring effective communications to increase the value of each product component
- coordinating activities with multiple teams – including Sales, Development, Professional Services, etc – to ensure successful delivery on key product objectives

Requirements:

- at least 3-year experience at comparable position
- IT background (understanding of standard product development processes, especially in a software based environment)
- excellent communication skills – written and oral, with fluency in written and spoken English and basic Czech
- excellent presentation skills
- team player
- able to work across all functional areas
- travelling

We Offer:

- attractive benefits package (meal tickets, sports, mobile phone and transport allowances)
- flexible working hours
- perspective of professional and personal growth
- place of work in Hradec Králové