

JOB DESCRIPTION

Classification: Public

Professional Services Technician

GMC Software Technology Limited.

The leading printing and communication solutions provider is hiring for its Professional Service Team, based in the UK.

Key Responsibilities:

- Development of customer applications, based on GMC solution offerings
- Implementation of customer applications, based on GMC solution offerings
- Deliver training services for business partners and customers
- Participate in preparation and production of development documents

Requirements:

- Degree in Computer Science, Management Information services or related studies
- Analytical and conceptual thinking
- Excellent communication and presentation skills
- Willingness and ability to learn about new technologies
- Self-reliance, responsibility, credibility, flexibility team-worker
- Experience with programming in C, C++ Java or similar
- Legibility to working within the UK and EU
- Frequent travel within the UK and occasion travel within the EU
- Frequent onsite deployment with periods away from home
- Full Driving license

We offer:

- Attractive benefits package
- Flexible working hours
- Full training and career development program for professional and personal growth