

Software Consultant – Professional Services

Responsibilities:

Software Consultant creates and implements solutions for foreign customers both on-site and remotely. The solution might include:

- providing support for both internal and external customers
- analyzing customer's requirements
- installation of the product
- customized system settings
- customized trainings
- documentation of installation and configuration

Requirements:

- fluent English and Czech
- experienced in IT and in project management
- at least 1 year work experience from similar position
- analytical skills
- communication and presentation skills
- willingness to travel abroad for a longer period (e. g. even more than 1 month)

We Offer:

- attractive benefits package (meal tickets, sports, mobile phone and transport allowances)
- flexible working hours
- place of work in Hradec Králové
- perspective of professional and personal growth